Runners Wanted

September 23, 2006 PEI - The annual Law Enforcement Torch Run in support of Special Olympics needs runners and pledges to make this year's run a resounding success. The run will take place in two locations on Oct. 4th beginning at 2 PM. In Prince County, runners will start the 14 KM run at the Kensington Police Department and finish at the Summerside Police Department. In Queens County, the 8 KM run begins at the RCMP office on Mason Road in Stratford and finishes at UPEI.

To support this event you can run, pledge a runner or purchase a LETR t-shirt. Contact Law Enforcement Torch Run representative Cindy Wicks at the Charlottetown City Police Department or call (902) 569-7883 for more information.

Law Enforcement Officers from across PEI are teaming up to support Special Olympics PEI. This year's Law Enforcement Agencies participating in this year's run are:

- Borden/Carleton Police Department
- Charlottetown Police Department
- Conservation Customs Border Services
- Department of Fisheries and Ocean
- Department of Highway and Safety
- Kensington Police Department
- Parks Canada
- PEI Corrections
- Royal Canadian Mounted Police
- Sheriff's Department
- Summerside Police Department
